CHAPTER I

CHAPTER II

The Rev Mr Stubbleworth was very much pleased with his new situation Having been transferred from a level pine woods country near the confines of Florida, the novelty of the mountain scenery and the pure, bracing atmosphere, seemed to inspire him with new life Complimenting all the mothers on the singular beauty of their children, with a delicate allusion to their own personal appearance, he soon became a general favorite Mr Stubbleworth "knew which side of his bread the butter was on

The time arrived for his departure to visit the transmundane portion of his pastoral care, he was warned of the dangers he was about to encounter, but they were heard with the same placid smile The worthy ladies pictured to him "chimeras dire," sufficient to have abated the zeal of any other person But that gentleman quieted their fears by appealing to the power that "tempers the wind to the shorn lamb, with a countenance as lamblike as could be imagined, and departed—singing,

" At home or abroad, on the land or the sea,
As thy wants may demand, shall my strength ever be "

They watched him untill his portly person and horse grew dim in the distance, and turned away, sighing that such a good man should fall into the hands of that monster, the blacksmith

Forgeron had heard of his new victim, and rejoiced that his size and appearance furnished a better suject for his vengeance than the attenuated frame of the late parson Oh, what a nice beating he would have ' He had heard, too that some Methodist preachers were rather spirited, and hoped this one might prove so, that he might provoke him to fight Knowing the clergyman must pass on Saturday in the afternoon, he gave his striker a holiday, and reclining on a bench, regaled himself on the beauties of Tom Paine, awaiting the arrival of the preacher

It was not over an hour before he heard the words—

" How happy are they, who their Savior obey,
And have laid up their treasures above

sung in a full, clear voice, and soon the vocalist, turning the angel of a rock, rode leisurely up, with a contented smile on his face

" How are you, Slab sides ? Get off your horse and join me in my devotions, said the blacksmith

" I have many miles to ride " answered the preacher, " and haven t time, my friend, I ll do so as I return

"Your name is Stubbleworth, and you are the hypocrite the Methodists have sent here, eh

" My name is Stubbleworth, he replied meekly

" Didn't you know my name was Ned Forgeron, the blacksmith, what whips every Methodist preacher that goes through this gap ' was asked with an audacious look , " and how dare you come here "

The preacher replied that he had heard Mr Forgeron s name, and presumed that he did not molest well behaved travellers

" You presumed so Yes, you are the most presumptuous people you Methodists, that ever trod shoe leather, any how Well, what ll you do it I don t whip you this time, you beef headed disciple you "

Mr Stubbleworth professed his willingness to do any thing reasonable, to avoid such penance

" Well, there s three things you ll have to do, or I ll maul you into a jelly The first is to quit preaching , the second is you must wear this last will and testament of Thomas Paine next to your heart, and read it every day, and believe every word you read , and the third is you are to curse the Methodists in every crowd you get into

The preacher looked on during these novel propositions, without a line of his face being moved, and at the end replied that the terms were unreasonable, and he would not submit to them

" Well, you have a whaling to submit to then. I ll harp you like blazes ! I ll tear you into doll rags, corner ways ! Get down you beggar

The preacher remonstrated, and Forgeron walked up to the horse and threatened to tear him off, if he did not dismount, when upon the worthy than made a virtue of necessity, and alighted

"I have but one request to make, my friend, that is, that you won t beat me with this over coat on It was a present from the ladies of my last circuit and I do not wish to have it torn

" Off with it, and that suddenly, you basin faced imp you

The Methodist minister slowly drew off his surtout, as the blacksmith continued his tirade of abuse on himself and his sect, and as he drew his right hand from the sleeve, and threw the garment behind him, he dealt Mr Forgeron a tremendous blow between the eyes which laid that person full length on the ground with the testament of Thomas Paine beside him The Rev Mr Stubbleworth, with the tact of a connoisseur in such matters, did not wait for his adversary to rise but mounted him with the quickness of a cat, and as he bestowed his blows with a bountious hand, on the stomach and face of the blacksmith, continued his song where he had left off, on his arrival at the smithey—

Tongue cannot express the sweet comfort and peace
Of a soul in its earliest love

Until Mr Forgeron from having experienced first love, or some other sensation equ... new to him, he responded lustily, "Nough— nough— nough! Take him off" But unfortunately there was no one by to perform the kind office, except the old ... and the muncle ... him ... gr ss, and looked as if his master was happy at a camp meeting

" Now ... said Mr Stubbleworth, "there are three things you must promise me ... I ... you ..."

" What are they ... asked Forgeron eagerly

... first ... Methodist preacher ... Ned's promise ... and ... stated, and ... until ... with his usual benign smile on his face, ... the blows ... on—

I took on the sky freely justified I
And the moon was under my feet

This oriental language overcome the blacksmith ! Such bold figures of something else caused him to sing out, "Well, I ll do it—I ll do it ! "

"You are getting on very well," said Mr Stubbleworth—"I think I can make a decent man of you yet, and perhaps a christian "

Ned groaned

"The second thing I require of you is, to go to Pumpkinville Creek meeting house and hear me preach to morrow

Ned attempted to stammer out some excuse—"I —I—I that is—"

When the divine assumed his devotional hymn, and kept them with the music, striking over the face with the fleshy part of his hand—

"My soul mounted higher, on a chariot of fire,
Nor did envy Elijah his seat "

Ned's promise of punctuality caused the parson s exercise to cease, and the words redolent of georgeous imagery, died away in echos from the adjacent crags

"Now the third and last demand I make of you is peremptory ' Ned was all attention to know what was to come next

"You are to promise to seek religion, day and night, and never rest until you obtain it at the hands of a merciful Redeemer The fallen man looked at the declining sun, and then at the parson, and knew not what to say, when the latter individual began to raise his voice in song once more, and Ned knew what would come next

" I ll do my best, he said in an humble voice

"Well that s a man, Mr Stubbleworth said — Now get up and go down to the creek and wash your face, and dust your clothes, and tear up Mr Paine s testament, and turn your thoughts on high

Ned arose with feelings he had never experienced before, and went to obey the lavatory injunction of the Preacher, when that gentleman on his horse, took Ned by the hand and said — "Keep your promises and I ll keep your counsel Good evening, Mr Forgeron—I ll look for you to morrow and off he rode with the same imperturbable countenance, singing so loud as to scare the eaglets from their eyrie in the overhanging rocks

Well, thought Ned, this a nice business '— What would people say if they knew Edward Forgeron was whipped before his own door in the gap, by a Methodist Preacher, too ? But his musings were " more in sorrow than in anger "

CHAPTER III

The disfigured countenance of Forgeron was of course the subject of numerous questions that night among his friends, to which he replied with a stern look they well understood, and the vague remark that he had met with an accident Of course they never dreamed of the true cause Forgeron looked in the glass, and compared the changing hues of his " black eye from a recent scuffle, to the rainbow shipwreck scene, " blending every color into one Or perhaps he had never read that story, and only muttered to himself " Ned Forgeron whipped by a Methodist preacher "

His dreams that night were of a confused and disagreeable nature, and waking in the morning he had an indistinct memory of something unpleasant having occurred At first he could not recollect the cause of his feelings, but the bruises of his face and body soon called them to mind as well as the promise He mounted his horse in silence, and went to redeem it

From that time, his whole conduct manifested a change of feeling The gossips of the neighborhood observed it and whispered that Ned was silent and serious and had gone to meeting every Sunday since the accident They wondered at his burning the books he used to read so much Strange stories were circulated as to this metamorphose of the jovial dare-devil blacksmith, into a gloomy and taciturn man Some supposed very sagely, that a spirit had enticed him into the mountains, and after giving him a glimpse into the future, had misled him to a crag where he had fallen and bruised his face — Others gave the prince of darkness the credit of the change , but none suspected the Methodist Preacher, and as the latter gentleman had no vanity to gratify, the secret remained with Ned

This gloomy state of mind continued until Forgeron visited the camp meeting The Rev Mr Stubbleworth preached a sermon that seemed to enter his soul, and relieve him of a burden, and the song of

" How happy are they who their Savior obey,"

was not half through, when he felt like a new man Forgeron was from that time a shouting Methodist At a love feast a short time subsequent, he gave in his experience, and revealed the mystery of his conviction and conversion to his astonished neighbors The Rev Mr Stubbleworth who had faithfully kept the secret until that time, could contain himself no longer but gave vent to his feelings in convulsive peals of laughter, as the burning tears of heartfelt joy coursed their way down his cheeks " Yes my brother, he said, "it s all a fact—I did maul the gr... into his unbelievings of there s no doubt "

The blacksmith of the mountain passes has become a happy man and a Methodist Preacher

WASHINGTON May 6 1844

... I have received your note, bringing to my notice a certificate subscribed by five gentlemen, members of the present House of Representatives, all of them my political opponents, which you inform me is going the rounds of the Loco-Foco papers The object of that certificate seems to be to verify the correctness of an extract taken from the National Intelligencer of the 1st of July, 1820 In that extract I am stated by a former member of the House of Representatives (I believe not now living) to have remarked, in a debate which occurred a year before, to the following effect — 'If gentlemen will not allow us to have black 'slaves they must let us have white ones, for we 'cannot cut our fire wood, and black our shoes, 'and have our wives and daughters work in the 'kitchen '

I think you attach an importance to this miserable attempt to prejudice me which it does not merit Here is an extract from the files of the Intelligencer, under date near twenty four years ago, not from any speech of mine, but from a speech of another member of Congress He does not undertake to give my words, but merely states his impression of the effect of certain words used by me a year before

During the long and arduous discussions of what was called the Missouri question, I was so engrossed with the importance of the subject, and so deeply apprehensive of the awful consequences which it involved, that I never wrote out or corrected any speech of mine during the progress of the debate On the last and most important occasion of the agitation of that question, I made an elaborate speech of several hours' duration, no part of which, I believe, was ever reported by any of the stenographers, as it certainly never was by me

I certainly will not undertake to recite what were the precise words used by me on the occasion of the numerous speeches, short or long which I made in Congress on the Missouri question , but this I will undertake to assert, with the most perfect confidence, that I never used the words, or any words which would bear the import, of the extract to which I have alluded I am confident of it, because I never entertained such a sentiment in my life I never conceived a contingency in which I would favor or countenance reducing white men to slavery To such an imputation I may oppose the tenor of a whole life, during which my humble exertions have been constantly directed to the preservation of liberty at home and the encouragement of its establishment in foreign countries — If I have not been able to extend these exertions to the black race held in bondage in this country it has been because of considerations and convictions, sincerely and honestly entertained, embracing the peace and happiness of both the white and black races, which have been often presented to the public

It is quite possible that, in arguing upon the existence of the institution of Slavery in this country, I may have contended that the black race supplied those domestic offices, which under the names of 'help 'menial servants, and 'domestics, are to be found in every state of civilized society, and consequently relieved the white race from the performance of those offices If I have ever employed such an argument, (of which I have no recollection it is apparent how erroneous inferences may have been drawn from it which it did not authorize

I have no desire to disparage the industry of the wives of any of the certifiers to the extract, nor to boast of that in my own family , but I venture to say that no one of them performs more domestic industry with her own hands than my wife does at Ashland

I am, with great respect,
Your friend and ob t serv t

Hon JOHN WHITE H CLAY

☞ The Washington Correspondent of the New York Republic not a Whig but a Free Trade paper, under date of June 1st has this remarks

The most intelligent of our politicians regard the nomination of Mr Polk by the Baltimore Convention, as the breaking up of the present organization of the Democratic party The surprise, the consternation with which the news of this result was received, still continue in an unabated degree, and the leading Democrats are holding meetings at every interval of business, and even during its progress, to interchange opinions as to the consequences which are likely to follow Judging from the bearing of their Representatives in Congress, New York and Ohio feel the greatest amount of indignation at the treatment which Mr Van Buren has received Some of these do not hesitate to express their conviction that the violence to the party is irremediable and I should not be surprised if many of the malcontents should, in their desperation, throw themselves into the ranks of the Whig party At the same time it is but fair to state that persons most influential in making this nomination, calculate ... on the result They count upon all the Southwestern and Southern States, and even claim the vote of Kentucky as theirs, and tell us that they will want but one Northern State to ensure the election of Polk Could the greatest Quixotte in Arithmetic do more than this

In the meantime the official organ of the President calls upon Mr Polk to withdraw—meaning I presume, not to accept and warns him of the dangerous position in which he will find himself, if he permits himself to be instrumental to a division of the party, by being used as a third candidate It is clearly therefore, that the sympathy and support of the Executive and his influence must not be calculated on by Mr Polk and his friends Broken as the party is by the indigestibility of the nomination, it will be still further fractured by the subtraction from it of the President, and of every Democrat who moves within the Executive circle especially now that the President has formally and publicly accepted his nomination as a candidate Mr Polk s strenuous opposition to any thing in the shape of a protective tariff, will prevent him from getting the votes of any of the manufacturing States and unless the President can secure them for himself will throw ... WHIG NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT,

HENRY CLAY,

OF KENTUCKY.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

THEODORE FRELINGHUYSEN.

OF NEW JERSEY.

☞ SEE FIRST PAGE.

The Loco Nominations.

It is really amusing to witness the working of the machinery which the loco leaders long since prepared for use on the reception of the news of the nomination of the Baltimore Convention.—It is this, to represent their own party as vastly gratified, and that it strikes the whigs unpleasantly, and makes them look blue! Now whoever has had an opportunity to watch the first impressions the nominations made upon the minds of intelligent men of the loco party, knows very well that it was far enough from producing pleasant sensations, but struck with surprise and in many instances excited no little wrath. This was to be expected. There is nothing strange in the fact that the leading, prominent men in their ranks being passed over to get at a third rate man, should cause unpleasant sensations.—They would have been less than men not to have some indignation in such a case. They did feel, felt it and do feel it. Just look at the editorial columns of the Democrat, Argus, or any of the loco papers in this State for several weeks previous to the nominations and observe their prophecies—how sure of the nomination of Mr Van Buren—the most emphatic language was made use of to express the entire confidence in Mr Van Buren's nomination. Now it is not in human nature to suppose that these men who so repeatedly and solemnly made these declarations, could have them all falsified without some emotion of disappointment and regret. But in fear that the depth of their sorrow shall be understood by their opponents, they brush up their faces and declare they feel first rate! It is pretty well acted but the effort to do it 'real slick' betrays the art.

And what, pray, have the locos to rejoice over in the nominations. Their favorire has been stricken down by the ultra Free Traders of the South, who are in favor of the immediate annexation of Texas as a means of bringing the Union to the practical acknowledgement of the South-Carolina policy, or the formation of a Southern confederacy. If they can find joy in having as their candidate a man in favor of such a policy, let them rejoice!

The whigs have reason to rejoice that the locos have a candidate now put forth as the avowed instrument and representative of the Free Trade party. Opposed to the Tariff of 1842 as he has repeatedly avowed himself on the stump. A man among the handful of origininal contrivers and supporters of the annexation conspiracy. A man thoroughly wedded to the system of slavery, and to the extreme policy which the greatest radicalism of the South demands for its support. The whigs knew that such a man—the representative of such interests to the exclusion of others, can never be elected in this country. Party machinery may do its most, and party drill its best, and party warfare its worst, but such an event can never happen. There is too much sound common sense—too much honest patriotism—too much enlightened self-interest in the freemen of the United States to sanction such a policy by the election of any man known to favor it.

Against such a nomination as the locos have presented in Polk and Dallas, the whig candidates can walk over the course in triumph almost without an effort.

Texas, Nullification, Disunion, &c.

The New York Express says, that "our Washington Correspondent, in the sketch he gives of what Mr McDuffie said, lifts another veil in the schemes of the disunionists, as coupled with the annexation of Texas. Mr. McDuffie, it appears, openly declared it to be his purpose to return to South Carolina, and get up a project of levying a duty upon all domestic manufactures, equal to that paid upon foreign goods of the same quality. This is to be done under the pretext of levying an excise for State purposes; and to effect it he intimates his intention to resign his seat in the Senate, and take one in the Legislature of South Carolina. The first is easy. Of course, South Carolina will do whatever he and Mr. Calhoun directs.

The few South Carolina Nullifiers have then a large business on hand for the ensuing summer, first to get Texas into the Union, and next to levy a duty upon Northern manufactures.—They grow big, now that they have thrown the candidate of the 'Northern Democracy' overboard.

☞ Amos Kendall's Tract on duelling and the sermon which the Frontier Journal speaks of together with various other similar documents, got up by the Van Buren party will now be out of use as Mr. Polk is not only a great Slaveholder, but is said to be a duellist who has killed his man! The outcries of the loco papers on these subjects are now out of date. They have completely stultified themselves by their nomination!

☞ The friends of Col. Johnson, it is said, have prevented him from running with Mr Tyler, for Vice President.

☞ The sudden nominations to the highest offices in the nation by the Loco National Convention of men whom nobody ever thought of, to fill those stations, have produced many farcical scenes among which we notice the following from the New York Express:

On Friday after the Convention at 3 o'clock in the morning, many of the delegates to Baltimore, who had just got into Philadelphia from Baltimore, went to Mr Dallas's house, and wakened him, Mr Walker among them. The appearance of Mr Walker at his door at that hour of the morning, led Mr Dallas to fear that his daughter, who was in Washington, was ill, and he hastened down stairs, half dressed and barefooted, to hear from him 'when,' says the Times, when, to his utter amazement, in walked sixty or more gentlemen, two by two, with the tread of soldiers passing him by, and entering his front parlor as though to make him a captive."

We can readily imagine the "utter amazement" of a gentleman like Mr Dallas, at such a scene. It grew, we presume, out of 'the excitement' caused by a night trip from Baltimore to that city. But to proceed:

"Mr Dallas not having the slightest conception of their object, stood thunder-struck at the scene. Mr Walker led him into the back parlor 'My dear Walker,' said he, in amazement, 'what is the matter?' 'Wait one moment, if you please, Dallas—wait one moment, if you please. The folding doors were then thown open, and the whole delegation stepping forward, gave three deafening cheers for 'Polk and Dallas!'—Mr D. stood paralyzed. Mr Walker enjoyed his discomfiture. Gov Fairfield, of Maine, then stepped forward, and in the name of the delegation, announced his nomination."

Here was histrionic effect with a vengeance. Here is scene worthy of Darley's graphic pencil. Mr Dallas half dressed and barefoot, with Mr Walker by his side in one room, immediately before sixty-two "grave, venerable convensionists," and Gov Fairfield addressing him in their name. The desired effect however, was produced.

☞ The Methodist General Conference, sitting in New York, has decided to request Bishop Andrew to cease the functions of his office until he has given up his slaves. The vote was ayes 110, nays 63. The discussion of the question has been long, anxious, and conducted with a strong display of feeling and firmness on both sides. The doors are now closed to conciliation, and as soon as the Southern members find their way home, the South will be on fire for that fancied blessing, a "Southern Confederacy," in Methodim, if they cannot establish one in politics. The Church, to be sure, can accomplish this much more easily than the politicians, inasmuch as there is nothing against it in "the Constitution and the laws."

☞ The Steamer Portland was detained on Monday, off Cape Elizabeth, in consequence of one of the wheels falling from the shaft, caused by the fastenings falling out. The Charter Oak went out from Portland to towlher in, in the evening, and took her passengers and freight to Boston on Tuesday morning.

☞ Mr Dallas the loco candidate for Vice President must soon prepare himself to answer before the country for the disclosures of the history of the Monroe Edwards trial. These new men of the locos will not be found so very spotless when their history gets fully before the public.

☞ Congress have agreed by a concurrent vote to adjourn on the 17th inst. It is said that the Senate, in Executive session, on Thursday last, rejected about 20 nominations, and among them the Collectors at New Bedford, Norwich, and Newport; the Naval officer at Baltimore, and the Postmaster at Newark.

☞ Our thanks are due to Jerome & Co's and to Gilman's Expresses for Boston and New York papers received by the last boat in advance of the Mail.

☞ We are requested to state that subscribers to the Lowell Offering will find their copies of back numbers at Bugbee's Periodical Depot.

Later from Texas.

By the arrival via New Orleans on the 22d ult. of the steamship Neptune, we have Galveston dates to the 19th and Houston dates to the 18th ult.

Two substantial log bridges have been discovered, one erected across the Rio Frio and the other across the Nueces. It is supposed that these bridges have been erected by Gen. Woll, in order that his troops might make a rapid march into Texas if called upon, and out of it if necessary. The Telegraph thinks that he has no idea of entering Texas, while the negotiations for annexation are going on.

The news of the defeat of the regular Mexican troops near Corpus Christi, by a party of traders under Aldrette, is fully confirmed. The latter killed eight and took seven of the Mexicans prisoners, all of whom were afterwards shot, to retaliate, as is supposed, for the massacre of a small party of traders that was captured a few weeks since by the Mexican soldiers. It is reported also that the Mexican officers have received orders from the Government to shoot all persons of every description that are found engaged in this trade; and the traders to retaliate for this barbarous conduct, have determined to give no quarter to the troops that are sent against them. Among the articles taken from the soldiers were a commission of a Mexican officer and a copy of instructions addressed to Gen Woll to the commander, showing that the Mexican Government fully authorized the expedition.

The appearance of this hostile party of Mexican soldiers within the actual limits of Texas, says the editor of the Telegraph, would have been regarded as a new instance of treachery on the part of Mexico, and in reality an insult to our government, if the late disgraceful negotiations had not afforded the Mexican Government a plausible pretext for claiming that territory as a part of Tamaulipas.

☞ The New York Daily Express a paper much valued here has failed to reach this office or the subscribers to that paper in this city for a week past. Where is the difficulty?

A Prussian ship from Stettin, and 53 days from Copenhagen, arrived at New Bedford on Tuesday, having come over to that port expressly to fit out for a whaling voyage.

The census of the city of Lowell has just been completed. We learn that the population of Lowell now numbers 25,149, being an increase since 1840 of 4353.

The Clare (Ireland) Journal, states that Father Mathew has postponed his intended visit to America until next year.

WILL take place at FANEUIL and QUINCY HALLS, in the City of Boston, commencing SEPTEMBER 16th, 1844.

The Exhibitions heretofore held by this Society have been eminently successful in promoting the Manufactures and Mechanic Arts, the introduction of new and improved Machinery, and the domestic skill and ingenuity of Female Industry.

In announcing this their Fourth Exhibition, it is done in the fullest confidence that it will be as brilliant and successful, and the results as beneficial, as any held by the Society.

They therefore hope this notice will meet with the early attention of Manufacturers, Artizans and Mechanics, of Massachusetts, as well as our sister States, whom we shall be proud to meet in this glorious field of competition. All articles wrought by Female Industry will be highly acceptable.

Articles to insure a conspicuous place in the Exhibition, should be sent in on or before Friday, the 13th September.

A Locomotive Engine of great power, now building by Messrs Hinckley & Drury, Boston, will be used to put in operation ALL machinery or working models that may be offered

Medals of Gold or Silver, or Diplomas will be awarded for all articles of merit deemed worthy of such distinction, and the Managers pledge themselves that strict impartiality will be observed in the awards.

A Bridge of new construction to connect Faneuil and Quincy Halls, will make a part of the Exhibition.

The Managers have engaged the services of Mr. CHAS. A. WELLS, No 6, Water street, Boston, as Actuary, who will devote his entire time and attention to the wants, wishes, and interests of the contributors, to whom communications and inquiries are to be addressed—who will give all the information that may be needed by those who have articles to offer, either for exhibition or premium.

"R. HOE & CO'S" Celebrated Patent Ground Cast Steel Mill-Circular and Cut SAWS,
For the superior excellence of which article he would refer to the following notice copied from a Philadelphia Paper.
March 15. 1844. eod&ew2m. m19

"R. Hoe & Co's."
SAWS.

PATENT GROUND CAST-STEEL MILL CIRCULAR, and CUT SAWS, from the celebrated Works of "HOE & CO." New York These Saws are made of SANDERSON BROTHERS & CO., BEST REFINED CAST STEEL, and are of superior workmanship, as well as quality, as will be seen by the following notice from a Philadelphia Paper.

"The comparative value of the Saws manufactured by the Messrs. Hoe & Co. may perhaps be more duly appreciated by those who understand the use of them, (after stating that they are made of Sanderson Brothers & Co. best Cast Steel, under an improved process of tempering, and cut by Machinery with Mathematical precision) by describing the main principle, of difference in grinding and finishing, between the usual mode, and the plan of Mr. Hoe, by which these are ground. The first is very easily described, because it is by a process with which all are familiar; merely that of holding the Saw upon a grindstone, by hand, and pressing it backward and forward until it is ground bright, and so nearly true, measuring with the eye, as may be thought will make it answer its purposes. The practiced eye, and skillful hand will, in this case, of course, put a truer finish to the article than the unskilful, but any Mechanic can see that the exactness of mechanical perfection can never be attained in this mode by the longest practice, however skillful.

On the other hand, Mr. Hoe's plan, by which these Saws are ground, consists of what we believe is termed a "lap," formed of a large, massive, leaden wheel, with its face covered with Emery, and strongly Iron bound, to prevent its flying to pieces from the centrifugal force of its light and rapid motion, with a planed iron plate embedded upon a carriage passing forward and backward beneath the wheel. On this plate of the carriage, the rough saw plate is placed, where it is, by means of gearing, graduated by raising or lowering to suit the required amount of cutting or grinding, and thus run through under the wheel, which is of immense weight and pressure, and is whirled with such almost inconceivable velocity of motion that it appears, by both operation and sound to not only scrape it down in a moment, with a perfect blaze of fire flying off at a tangent from the wheel where it is in contact with the Saw plate, but to complete the business of grinding to a perfect true ness with a single scrape on each side of the plate. Such is this plan of rendering mechanically perfect the straight Saw.

The Circular Saw is ground by a Machine with different arrangements, but similar in principle rendering them equally perfect."

SANDS' SARSAPARILLA.

FOR THE REMOVAL AND PERMANENT CURE OF ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM AN IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD, OR HABIT OF THE SYSTEM, NAMELY:

Scrofula, or King's Evil, rheumatism, obstinate cutaneous eruptions, pimples, or pustules on the face, blotches, biles, chronic sore eyes, ring worm or tetter, scald head, enlargement and pain of the bones and joints, stubborn ulcers, syphilitic symptoms, sciatica, or lumbago, and diseases arising from an injudicious use of the mercury, ascites, or dropsy, exposure or imprudence in life. Also, chronic constitutional disorders will be removed by this preparation.

The proprietors submit to the public the following certificate, from a highly respectable source, of a cure made by using their preparation of Sarsaparilla, which cannot but have the effect of placing beyond all doubt the curative powers of the medicine:

NEW YORK, August 3, 1842.

"Messrs. Sands—Gentlemen: Under a feeling sense of gratitude inherent to us all when suddenly relieved from suffering and disease, I now, as an act of justice due to you, and with a view of relieving the afflicted, make known to the world the inestimable benefit I have received from the use of your Sarsaparilla. In the year 1832 I sailed from England in a vessel bound for Quebec, and while on the passage first discovered the disease which after proved to be a sore affliction; and truly I can say, 'from the crown of my head to the sole of my foot there was no soundness in me.' From the time first mentioned down until the present, a period of more than ten years, I have suffered all that human nature was capable of bearing. I have been under the care of the most distinguished physicians both in this country and in England, visited Bath, Cheltenham, Bristol and Gloucester, tried various specifics, among others a large quantity of Swaim's Panacea, used sulphur baths, &c. As a last resort I was induced to wrap myself in a tar ointment, keep myself secluded, shunned by all, myself also shunning. I was induced to believe my case a hopeless one.

In August last, by the advice of friends, I went to the New York City Hospital, but was there told that my case was incurable. The disease now enveloped my whole body, rendering me almost helpless; the skin thickened and cracked, and blood and matter ran, and life itself became almost a burden. A few weeks since I was induced to use your Sarsaparilla by hearing it so highly recommended, having spent nearly $3,000 without obtaining but little relief. After using it a short time, I found myself better, and now, by using six or eight bottles, costing me less than ten dollars, I am well. Yes, I certify and declare to the world, that after spending near $3,000 in traveling and doctoring, and suffering more than can be told, I was perfectly cured by using your invaluable preparation of Sarsaparilla; and I now recommend it to all similarly afflicted. Those wishing to know further particulars will find me at my residence, No. 27 Warren street, New York, where I shall be happy to communicate any thing in relation to the above cure.

WRIGHT'S Indian Vegetable Pills.

The True Character of Counterfeiters and Sellers of Counterfeit Medicines.

NO Medicine has been introduced to the American Public, whose virtues have been more cheerfully and universally acknowledged by its vast popularity, and extensive circulation, than "WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS."

To descant upon their various virtues at this late season would be a work of supererogation, since few who peruse this article will be found unacquainted with the widely circulated proofs of the real excellence of the Medicine, to which many will be ready to add the testimonials of their own experience. But if further proof were needed of the value of the remedy it might be found in the fact that no Medicine in the market has been so shamelessly and repeatedly counterfeited. Ignorant, envious, avaicious, and unprincipled men, have in different places, manufactured a spurious pill, bearing a superficial resemblance to the true article, but composed either of impotent or deleterious ingredients, which they have sought to foist upon the public as the veritable

Indian Vegetable Pills.

These fraudulent Swindlers could never pass off their vile wares upon the public but for the connivance and assistance of self-styled respectable Druggists, who, for the sake of a little "filthy lucre," lend themselves to the monstrous and unhallowed system of imposition. The counterfeiter of a popular medicine is more criminal than a counterfeiter of current money. The injuries done by the latter sink to nothing in comparison with those inflicted upon society by the former. We might paint him wringing the mite from the hard hand of invalid penury which is extended for the boon of health, and receives instead the vile drug that protracts and aggravates disease, or to view it in its best aspect, suffers it to rage unchecked. How melancholy is the reflection that thousands may have been hurried to the grave by having a counterfeit substituted for the true Medicine; who but for the venal fraud might now be living in high health, the delight and hope of the social circle.—All classes are interested in putting down these vile Counterfeiters.

Let the Stores where they are sold be marked and Shunned.

Let the virtuous indignation of the community administer to all concerned in these unfair practices a general and withering rebuke.

CAUTION:

The public will please observe that the genuine Medicine has the following wording on the sides of the boxes.

"WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS."

—Indian Purgative—

OF THE NORTH AMERICAN COLLEGE OF HEALTH.

And also, around the border of a label will be found in small type, "Entered according to Act of Congress in the year 1840, by William Wright, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania."

It will be further observed that the printed direction for using the Medicine, which accompanies each box, are also entered according to Act of Congress; and the same form will be found at the bottom of the first page.

The slightest attention to the above few particulars will serve to protect the purchaser from fraud, and save the lives of those who may otherwise be endangered by using a Counterfeit Medicine.

The public will also remember, that all those who sell the genuine Indian Vegetable Pills are provided with a certificate of Agency, signed by

WILLIAM WRIGHT, Vice President
Of the American College of Health:

and that Pedlars are never in any case allowed to sell the genuine article. All traveling Agents will be provided with a certificate of Agency as above described; and those who cannot show one will be known as base imposters.

The regularly appointed Agents can receive their supplies of the above popular pills, as heretofore, from the only Office and General Depot for the New England States
